Hostages In Moscow Face Horrors Like Those Enacted At Kiev

ACTION AT OMSK

Clauses Of Constitution Of Siberian Government Are Announced

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, October 25.—The Representatives of the United States Government in Paris have reported that telegraphic news has been received from General Denikin that he learns from Moscow that in consequence of the anti-Bolshevik forces advancing northward, the Bolsheviki have arrested a large number of persons, a number of whom have already been executed.

On the basis of the occurrences at Kiev and in other cities during the last days of Bolshevik control, General Denikin predicts the same fate as awaiting the remaining hostages how held by the Bolsheviki. The allied and associated governments are begged to enforce any measures possible to prevent a wholesale massacre.

America has not had an opportunity to confirm the specific reports transmitted by General Denikin. However the knowledge of other horrors which have been proved to have been perpetrated by the Bolsheviki and their followers inspires grave fear.

The United States government has invited the attention of Denmark to the foregoing in the hope that she may still have means of communicating through the Danish Red Cross with the Bolshevik leaders or through other channels.

Being aware of the constant solicitude of Denmark to assist the Russian people in their difficulties, the United States urges, in the present instance, Denmark to do whatever is possible to appeal on grounds of humanity to the Bolshevik leaders in the hope of saving the lives of innocent people and preventing additional acts of barbarity and terror.

REPORT ON ATROCITIES
(Reuter's Service)

London, October 24.—Major Sayer who has just returned from Russia, interviewed by Reuter's representative, said that his investigations at Kiev, Kharkov, and elsewhere showed that wholesale murders, robberies and torture-chambers were part of the normal life of Bolshevism in Russia.

Many Bolshevist torturers and murderers, men and women had been captured but they pleaded that they were not responsible.

Cocaine fiends had joined the Bolshevists in order to get supplies of the drug. One of the worst was a young woman who specialised in killing White officers and who was credited with the murder of several hundred.

Her practice, said Major Sayer, was to stand her victim against a wall and start shooting at him with a revolver, beginning with his feet and working up his legs and body, and only despatching him when he was in a state of collapse.

Clauses Announced In Omsk Constitution

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Omsk, October 23.—The Committee formed to draft the constitution of the National Congress has passed the following resolution:

"Twenty-five Siberian towns with a population of over 25,000 have the right to be represented at the Congress. The government Zemstvos have the right to elect one representative each. The Cossacks will have 20 seats; the Mahomedan communities 2 seats.

"Believers of the Old Faith 2 seats.

"The industrial and trading class 5 seats.

"Workers will be represented at the Congress by the Union of Pro-

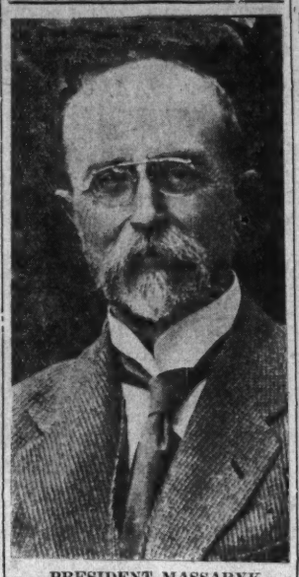
Czecho-Slovakia A Year Old Today



PRESIDENT MASSARYK

The Czecho-Slovak Republic is one year old today. On October 28, 1918, at Prague, the independence of the new republic was proclaimed. Today in other words, is the Czecho-Slovak Fourth of July, just as October 10 is Independence Day for the Republic of China. Prof. G. Massaryk was in Washington when independence was proclaimed. He had done a great work there in behalf of his countrymen, and, in his absence, he was elected President of the newborn democracy. And he took his oath of office in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, the cradle of American freedom.

Wilson, Improved, Receives Reports Of World Problems

President's Condition Such That He Sends Views On Industrial Conference

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, October 26.—The White House announces that President Wilson is being kept informed regarding the threatened strike of American coalminers, the Peace Treaty and the National Industrial Conference.

Thanks to the improvement in his physical condition during the last few days, President Wilson has been able to read a written report from his secretary, Mr. Tumulty on the pressing problems of the moment. The President also sent from his sick-bed his views on the National Industrial Conference situation to the chairman Mr. Lane, Secretary of the Interior.

(American Press Wireless)

Washington, October 25.—President Wilson passed one of the best nights last night since his illness began, according to the daily bulletin of Admiral Grayson, the President's physician, today. The President's pulse respiration is continuing normal and his digestion is much more satisfactory.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, October 25.—A telegram from Washington to the American Legation received today states that the progress of President Wilson's condition is satisfactory.

Chinese Societies Hosts To Departing U.S. Consul

Eighteen Organisations Unite In Presentation Of Silver Loving Cup To Mr. Thomas Sammons

Five hundred Chinese merchants, educators, evangelists, bankers, mill owners and social service workers assembled in the spacious hall of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce yesterday at the farewell reception to United States Consul-General Thomas Sammons, who leaves for Melbourne Sunday, and to welcome Mr. E. C. Cunningham, the newly-appointed United States Consul-General for Shanghai. Eighteen local organisations were represented. A huge silver loving cup were presented by Mr. Huang Yen-pei, Vice-President of the Kiangsu Educational Association, to the departing Consul-General.

Speeches were made by Mr. H. Y. Moh, manager of the Hou Seng and Teh Dah Cotton Mills, Dr. R. W. Kuo, professor of Nanking University who has just recently returned from the States after a thorough investigation of the educational system there, Mrs. H. C. Mei, representing the Women's Returned Students' Club and Mr. Chu Pao-san, chairman of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, by his secretary, Mr. N. Y. Chang. Dr. T. H. Lee, president of Futan College, presided.

Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Mei and Mrs. Chang Tingyung. Miss King Yung-tsing played a piano solo. Refreshments and candies, which were presented to the organisations by Y. S. Mah and Company, were served.

GATHERING SIGNIFICANT

Dr. T. H. Lee, in his speech of welcome, said that the gathering yesterday was significant in that it was an expression on the part of 18 organisations, which were gathered to express the gratitude of the people not only towards Consul-General Sammons but also towards the United States, which had done so much for China. He said that whatever would be said about Mr. Sammons would come from the speakers' hearts.

Dr. Lee then read the inscription on the silver cup, which was: "Presented to the Honorable Thomas Sammons, American Consul-General at Shanghai, 19[illegible] ser[illegible] to[illegible]

[illegible] leaves us, we will be greatly grieved, but I am sure his interest for China will continue.

"Mr. Sammons' service to China will ever be remembered. His service to commercial China will be especially appreciated. As a man of the commercial world, it is needless for me to say that the trade between China and the United States needs development. This development can only be brought about by mutual goodwill and mutual respect. Doubtless this feeling is improving. Early this year, there was decided improvement in this direction and since then, in one line alone, the Chinese cotton manufacturers have placed orders for 600,000 spindles at a cost of Tls. 20,000,000 with one American firm."

CREDIT ORGANISATION IN AMERICA IS URGED

Secretary Redfield Outlines Plan At Atlantic City Trade Conference

(Reuter's Service)

Atlantic City, October 23.—At the International Trade Conference here the United States Secretary of Commerce, Mr. William C. Redfield, urged the formation of a United States credit granting organisation, to purchase the securities of struggling foreign nations, under the supervision of the Federal Reserve Board with a capital of a thousand million dollars.

The organisation would issue small bonds which would be purchasable in the United States. Mr. Redfield said that the United States could not get along by selling goods abroad against cash.

The American Sub-Committee on textiles, metals and petroleum reported that American production of these commodities was ample to meet all foreign requirements.

PEKING PAPER CLOSED AND EDITOR ARRESTED

Charge Of Violating Clause Of Press Law Made Against Kuo Ming Kung Pao

(CHINA PRESS OWN SERVICE)

Peking, Oct. 27.—The Kuo Ming Kung Pao, a local vernacular daily paper representing the Chinputang party, was closed by the authorities and its editor arrested last night. The paper is charged with violating Article XI of the press regulations prohibiting the publication of attacks against the government. It is charged that the public peace is disturbed by recently published articles of a Bolshevist flavor.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, October 25.—The police closed down the Kuo Ming Kung Pao yesterday evening, on the charge of its transgressing Article XI of the press laws, in an article dealing with the Shantung question. The editor and publisher were taken into custody but subsequently released.

WILSON SENDS APPEAL TO INDUSTRIAL MEETING

Ask Public Representatives To Remain In Session And Draft Program

(American Wireless Service)

Washington, Oct. 26.—Following the withdrawal of the Labor delegates from the National Industrial Conference after the refusal of the delegates representing Capital to accept the Labor demand for the right of collective bargaining, President Wilson sent a message to the chairman of the conference, Mr. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, asking that the representatives of the public should continue their work on the Conference and report to him.

President Wilson expressed the hope that the delegates of the public who represented both employes and workers would be able to formulate a program acceptable to both Capital and Labor. Mr. Lane declared the Conference as originally constituted adjourned, and immediately called the members of the public group into session as a new conference.

Washington, October 25.—Imperative action by the National Industrial Conference to insure industrial peace during the period of reconstruction was urged in a letter from President Wilson to Secretary of the Interior Lane, which was read to the delegates attending the convention of labor.

The public expects the conference to stay together until a way is found to effect the establishment and insure hearty co-operation between all countries engaged in industry or until the efforts of all perverted men who work and men who are organisers of American industry, who are so set upon a diverging path contrary to all efforts toward co-operation, are doomed to fail, the President said.

The nation's industrial leaders should be without hate toward each other and not constantly struggling to gain an advantage over each other, he declared. If they are to do nought but what is compelled, the President asserted, the situation which will result will end in national disaster.

Washington, October 23.—In response to another sickbed appeal from President Wilson the members representing the public at the Industrial Conference continued in session in the hope of formulating a program which would be acceptable to both capital and labor.

CHANGES IN CABINET DENIED BY OFFICIALS OF PRESENT MINISTRY

Moves Considered Inadvisable Pending Settlement Of Peace Conference

ANFU CLUB STARTS RUMOR

Early Reports Believed Move To Fortify Organisation's Position

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 24.—There appears to be no doubt that the Government intends to appoint a substantive Cabinet next week, and that the names of the Ministers will be submitted to Parliament during the present special session.

A semi-official forecast today places General Chin Yun-peng as Premier and Minister for War, Mr. Li Shih-hao, who is now Vice-Minister and Acting Minister of Finance as Minister of Finance, Mr. Tseng Yu-chun, Vice-Minister and Acting Minister of Communications, as Minister of Communications, General Wu Ping-hsiang as Minister of the Interior, and Mr. Fu Tseng-yu as Minister of Education, while no changes are anticipated in the Ministries of Commerce, the Navy, Justice and Foreign Affairs.

It is understood however that this list is liable to be slightly altered.

The report that General Chin Yun-peng had telegraphed to General Lu Yung-ting asking for an expression of opinion regarding the deadlock at Shanghai is officially confirmed. No reply has yet been received.

(CHINA PRESS OWN SERVICE)

Peking, Oct. 27.—Cabinet officials interviewed today deny vigorously on behalf of the government reports that a reorganisation of the ministry with a view to the appointment of the permanent Cabinet under the premiership of Chin Yun-peng is being made. It was stated that the Government considers any change undersirable pending a settlement of the Shanghai peace conference tangle.

It is understood that the reports of a reorganisation of the Cabinet come from the Anfu Club which is seeking to fortify its position by having permanent ministers selected by it chosen at this time.

JAPANESE SOCIALISTS STAGE HUGE MEETING

Osaka Gathering Breaks Up In Disorder When Police Interrupt Speaker

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, October 25.—Last night a socialist propaganda mass meeting was held at the Osaka general public hall which was packed to the doors with an enthusiastic audience.

A strong force of police both in uniform and plain clothes was present. The meeting terminated in disorder, which was caused by the resentment of the audience against the interference of the police who stopped the last speaker, Mr. Kosen Sakai, a noted socialist, after he had uttered a few scattered sentences.

The meeting broke up amid wild shouts of "Socialism Banzai," "Labor Banzai."

Chinese Charge In U.S. Made Labor Delegate

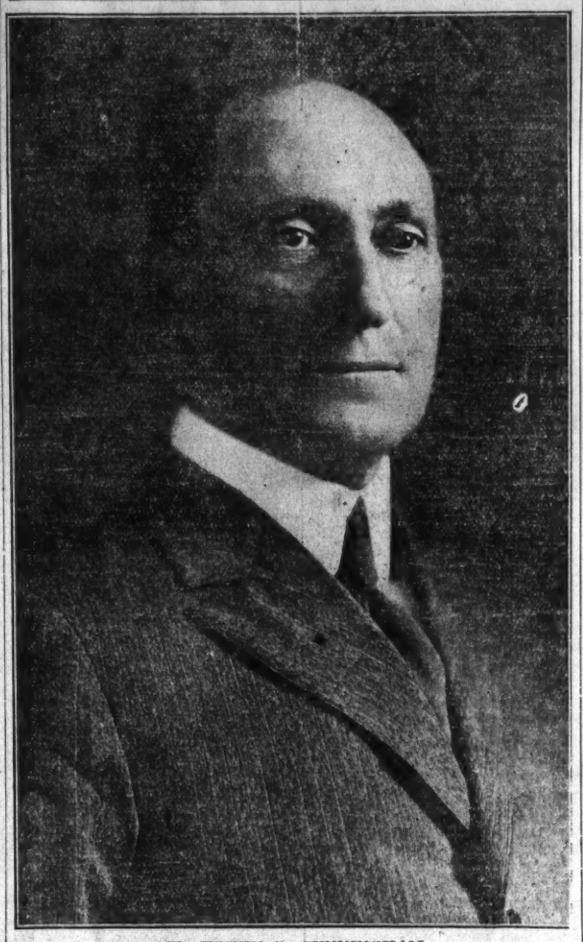
Peking, Oct. 24.—The Official Gazette announces the appointment of Mr. Yung Kuai, Charge d'Affaires at Washington, as the second Chinese delegate to the International Labor Conference at Washington.

New American Consul-General Arrives



MR. EDWIN S. CUNNINGHAM

Mr. Edwin S. Cunningham, newly-appointed United States Consul-General at Shanghai, arrived yesterday from Hankow. He will relieve Mr. Thomas Sammons on Friday. Mr. Sammons sails for Japan on the Empress of Russia Saturday afternoon. He will enjoy a short stay in Japan before going to Melbourne, his new post. Mrs. Cunningham accompanies the new Consul-General.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham were met at the dock yesterday by Mr. Sammons, Consul R. P. Tenney, Vice-Consuls A. G. Loehr, J. E. Jacobs and Eli Taylor and Secretary P. L. Gross.

Consul-General Edwin Cunningham, who comes here after five years of Chinese acquaintance at Hankow, has had a wide variety of consular experience. He was born in Tennessee and still claims Maryville, Tennessee, as his home.

He attended the public schools there and was graduated from Maryville College in 1889 and later taking a degree in law from the University of Michigan. Then he returned to Maryville and practised law as partner in the firm of Cates and Cunningham.

His first consular appointment was to Aden in February, 1898. He was in charge there during the Spanish-American war when Admiral Camora cleared the Suez ostensibly bound for the Philippine Islands. From the tropic heat of Aden Mr. Cunningham was transferred in 1903 to Bergen, inside the Arctic circle. Here he remained three years and was then sent to Durban, South Africa, to open a new consulate.

The Indian Empire was his next residence as Consul at Bombay in 1910. Two years later he was promoted to Consul-General at Singapore. This was his last post before being transferred to Hankow.

Deteat Of Lloyd George Government In Commons Causes New Situation

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 23.—In the House of Commons today on the third reading of the Alien restriction bill the Government's proposal to amend the clause relative to foreign pilots, modifying the committee's decision to withhold certificates from all aliens, was defeated by 185 votes to 113. Considerable excitement ensued, but Mr. Bonar Law according to precedent, immediately moved the adjournment of the House till October 27, to enable the Government to consider the situation.

This was warmly received on all sides. Sir Edward Carson said he hoped that no extravagant expectations would be based on the result of the division.

It is not expected in the Lobby that the defeat will have serious consequences, as the point involved is small. It is believed that Mr. Bonar Law desired to read his followers a lesson as regards the inconveniences of hasty voting against the Government. Some point out the possibility of Sir Edward Shortt, the Home Secretary, who is in charge of the bill resigning.

CAUSE ANALYSED

London, October 23.—The defeat of the Government was due to a combination of Labor members and independent Liberals together with at least a hundred Ministerialist opposing the Government.

London, Oct. 24.—The issue of the vote in the House of Commons yesterday evening was whether alien masters should be allowed to pilot their own ships in British ports.

The Government favored granting permits to French masters in accordance with a convention with the French. The Cabinet is now confronted with the dilemma of asking the House to reverse its decision or of denouncing the convention.

It is thought that the Bill may be dropped.

Later.—A Cabinet Council was held today to consider the position raised by the Government's defeat on the Alien Bill amendment. It is understood that the Government does not regard the defeat as sufficiently important to justify an appeal to the country.

PEKING SENDS WARNING OF ATTACK OF NINGPO

Report Received Hostilities Will Be Opened Against Port By South

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 24.—It is understood that the Government has sent an urgent telegram to General Lu Yung-hsiang, Acting Tuchun of Chekiang, saying that according to a Southern report, the Southern navy under the inspiration of General Li Lieh-chun has planned an attack on Ningpo and Hsiangshan Bay, Chekiang, and that the Southern scheme is to appoint General Li Tuchun of Chekiang.

10 RESERVATIONS RECOMMENDED TO SENATE'S ACTION

Monroe Doctrine And Shantung Among Points Committee Raises

NEW SITUATION

Right Of Congress To Authorise A Mandate Also Involved

ARMAMENT ISSUE

Privilege Of Increasing Military Power At Certain Times Asked

(American Wireless Service)

Washington, Oct. 26 (?)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has adopted ten reservations to the Peace treaty.

These refer, among other things, to the following matters: right of withdrawal from membership of the League; the right of Congress to authorise a mandate; the Monroe doctrine; Shantung; limitation of representation on Commissions; the right of Congress to determine contributions to the League expenses; the right to increase armaments in certain circumstances; and the right to continue to trade with a State which has severed from the League.

The reservations concerning Shantung would provide that the United States withhold assent to articles 156, 157 and 158 of the Peace Treaty, and reserve full liberty on action with respect to any controversy which may arise under the said articles between the Republic of China and the Empire of Japan.

Near Eastern Questions Taken Up By Council

(Reuter's Service)

London, October 24.—An important step towards the stabilisation of the situation in the Near East has been taken by the Supreme Council in Paris which has refused Rumania's demand for both banks of the river Maros as far as the Theiss and the control of the Arad-Szatmar railway and has informed Rumania that the Transylvanian settlement whereby Rumania gets a Transylvanian province of 120,000 square kilometers rich in minerals is irrevocable.

The Council has settled the vexed question of the Banat by dividing it between Rumania and Servia. The latter gets most of the district of Torontal and two-thirds of the waterways in the Banat. Rumania receives the districts of Temesvar and Caros-Serverin with the famous mines and steel works of Resicza-abanya.

LIST TO BE TRIED

Paris, October 21.—The list of 300 German officers to be court-martialed for war crimes has been completed by the Department of Military Justice. The list includes the Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria.

Paris, October 22.—The Germans having attempted to elude the conditions of the peace treaty in the case of merchant steamships by fictitious or real sales to Dutch shipping companies, M. Clemenceau has sent a communication to Baron von Lersner, head of the German delegation at Versailles, advising the Berlin Government that the Allied Powers will not recognise any transfer of enemy tonnage to neutral flags during the war, and that consequently the Supreme Council requests Germany to surrender five ships.

Paris, October 24.—Marshal Foch informed the Supreme Council yesterday that the occupation of the Rhine territories where plebiscites are to be held would necessitate a concentration of troops which would require a certain time. It is hoped that the occupation will be accomplished early next month when the treaty will be enforced.

GERMANS OPPOSE BLOCKADE

Copenhagen, October 24.—In the German National Assembly the Foreign Minister Herr Mueller referring to the Supreme Council's request to Germany to collaborate in ensuring the blockade of Soviet Russia said that Germany having herself suffered from the "hunger blockade" could not be expected to assist in imposing it on Russia. Moreover as long as Russia was not supplied with foodstuffs, so long would the Russians be unable to resist Bolsheviam. Germany therefore could not agree to the Supreme Council's request. The Socialists supported Herr Mueller.

Paris, October 24.—The Co-ordination Commission which will take the place of the Council of five has been selected. Lord Derby represents Great Britain, M.M. Pichon and Berthelot France, Count Bonin Longare and Signor Pagliano Italy, Mr. Matsui Japan, while Mr. Wallace will probably represent the United States. The Commission will be the supreme tribunal for all treaty enforcement commissions.

Paris, October 14 (delayed).—The Supreme Council yesterday instructed the Polish Commission which is presided over by M. Jules Cambon to take steps to insure the execution of the evacuation by the Germans of the territory assigned to Poland.

Washington, October 26.—The State Department announces that the United States will not be represented on any commission provided for in the Peace Treaty nor will United States troops police Silesia or any other country where a plebiscite is proposed in the treaty.

News From Washington Is Awaited In Paris

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, October 22.—The diplomats of all nations are interested in the news despatched from Washington which arrived in Paris today, stating that Robert I. Lansing, American Secretary of State, has declared that the United States will not have members on the Peace Commission prior to the ratification of the pact of Versailles by the United States Senate.

This is taken as a reply to the action of the Supreme Council Saturday inviting the United States to name members of the commission for the enforcement of the treaty even if the Senate has not ratified the document by the time it comes in force. The answer was desired Thursday so that a date might be set for the deposit of the ratifications of the various Allied nations to bring about an official state of peace. It is presumed that the American delegation will have an official statement ready by that time.

There is much speculation as to the effect of Secretary Lansing's statement, which is stated as representing President Wilson's ruling upon fixing the date for putting the treaty into effect. France is very much averse to starting the post-war work without the United States membership on the Executive Council of the League of Nations as well as upon the Treaty Commission. If matters were left entirely to France the formal ratification would probably wait upon the American action.

However, it should be borne in mind that should the French delegates dare to insist in such a view there would be a demand for immediate peace. Further, it is understood that the British delegation is opposed to waiting any longer for America.

Nevertheless, the Supreme Council has decided that Marshal Foch may say when the treaty should come into effect, this step having been taken when it was pointed out that the military plans were not in shape for ratification. Marshal Foch has a way of following the desires of the French foreign office and it may well be that he cannot have his plan ready before the first week in November and by that time the Senate may have acted.

While no official statement to that effect is being made, it being simply stated that the Allies are not ready, it is an open secret in the Peace Conference that it is desired to have America deposit her ratification at the same time as the other nations and that England, France and Italy and possibly Japan have played a part in the present delay.

FOCH SENDS QUERY

French and British statesmen are taking stock of the situation now and Marshal Foch has asked England and America to tell him tomorrow how well they will comply with his requests for military forces and it is probable that Thursday will bring a definite statement as to the date of ratification.

It would come as no surprise if some day during the first week in November were fixed. Disregarding the element of military preparations if the Council supplies President Wilson Thursday with the date for his call of the Council of the League of Nations, he would in the natural course of things receive it Friday, October 24.

It is not believed it would be found advisable to have the Council meet the week after the President sent out the call and it has been decided that this meeting will be held the same day that the ratifications are deposited. This reasoning would indicate that there will be no deposit of ratifications before the first week in November. Then there naturally is always the question as to whether the Senate will made their decision by that time.

Stupid methods of the Peace Conference in matters of publicity have been illustrated anew with respect to the Allied note regarding the blockade of Soviet Russia.

The peace treaty was first published by Germany. That set the style and ever since official documentary news of the actions of the conference has come first from Berlin. Therefore, the schedule ran in true form when Berlin sent out the news of the Allied blockade note.

Only it appears that Berlin distorted the note. In the first place, the word blockade appearing in the German version of the footnote regarding the freedom of the seas doctrine does not hold water. In the second place, the Peace Conference officials say that the indictment of the Bolsheviki appearing in the Berlin report is much stronger than the original.

And in the meantime the whole world reads the German distorted version of the action of the Peace Conference, while the original note which was sent four weeks ago to the Supreme Council has not as yet been made public in its official text.

ROME GIVES WELCOME TO LU CHENG-HSIANG

Chief Chinese Delegate Is Lavishly Entertained And Received By King

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Rome, October 21.—Lu Cheng-hsiang was received by King Victor Emmanuel yesterday. He presented to His Majesty a cordial message from the President and Government of the Chinese Republic, expressing a desire for the maintenance of the closest friendship between Italy and China and for the development of commercial relations in the interest of both countries.

Subsequently Lu Cheng-hsiang had a long conference with Signor Nitti, the Premier with regard to political and economic intercourse between Rome and Peking.

(Italo Napolitano News Agency of Rome)

Rome, Oct. 26, (Special to THE CHINA PRESS).—The visit of the chief Chinese delegate, Mr. Lu Cheng-hsiang to Rome on October 21 and 22 was marked by a number of ceremonies and entertainments. On the day of his arrival Mr. Lu accompanied by Mr. Wang Kwang-chi, his own staff and the staff of the Chinese Legation placed wreaths at the Pantheon with appropriate ceremonies followed by a military parade and speeches by the Commanding Officer, Mr. Lu and others.

At 1 o'clock Mr. Lu and staff were entertained at a lunch given by the Sino-Italian Association which includes in its membership senators, deputies, members of the Government, prominent merchants, journalists and bankers. At the close of the lunch Count Sforza, Mr. Lu, Signor Marsoli and Signor Rivetta, editor of La Tribuna spoke.

Later in the afternoon a reception was given for the visitors by the Mayor of Rome at the Capitol.

In the evening the Chinese minister, Mr. Wang Kwang-chi was host at a banquet given at the Chinese legation attended by all the Italian Cabinet Ministers and members of the Government.

On the following day a great reception was given at the Chinese Legation attended by thousands.

DAVIES NEW MANAGER AT THE CAFE PARISIEN

With Reorganised Orchestra And Novel Features Big Opening Is On Tonight

With Captain F. Davies as the new manager and new musicians for the jazz band, the best that could be procured in America, the Cafe Parisien blossoms out tonight with a grand opening.

The new manager is known from one end of the East to the other and anything that bears the stamp of Captain Davies' personal management may be known to be up to the standard.

The orchestra is the same but with additions. Mr. Harry Kerrey is there at the piano, in front and on top of it, as before, with Art Cody at the drum and the what-nots. The added stars are Messrs. Ray Breck, saxophonist, and Russell Ellis, banjo expert, both of whom arrived from San Francisco on the Nanking Sunday. Breck is a born clown in addition to being a remarkable musician. He appears to get so wrought up by his own music as to climb and dance all over the furniture but his music never stops. Other members of the Parisien Jazz Band are Messrs. Peter Lyons, violinist and Mateo Meso, bass.

Special music and a special menu will be offered tonight.

The Opera

The world-famous pair of operas "Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" were attended by a large audience at the Lyceum last night. The two stories so well played held the audience rapt. In "Pagliacci" the tenor, Mr. Busanousky, (mentioned below in "The Demon") scored his first success here in a big dramatic part. The prologue, almost as famed as the opera itself, was sung by Mr. Ulianoff who was Tonio in the cast. Miss Sasonzova who has had so far only minor parts, was "Nedda." The close of the opera, so similar in its dramatic content to its fellow, brought a storm of applause.

Two parts on the program were exchanged: Mr. Bussansky playing "Beppo," and Mr. Gorianko, "Silvio."

"Cavalleria" produced yet another new tenor, Mr. Svetloff, as "Turiddu" and gave Miss Guseva—who won great successes in "Aida" and "Tosca"—a part suited to her powerful acting and passionate singing. Mr. Svetloff has the gift of singing and playing with complete absorption in his character. Miss Zirianova made a captivating character as "Lolay." The part of "Alfio" found Mr. Ulianoff further opportunities after his work in "Pagliacci."

The renowned "Intermezzo" met with warm approval. As the breathless close was reached the house rose to recall the cast rather than to leave the theater. Mr. Furst conducted the two operas which cannot but have the effect of attracting more of the public to test for itself the many musical treats the company has still in store, such as Shanghai is unlikely to be offered again for a very long time.

"IL DEMONIO"

To have missed Rubinstein's "Il Demonio" Sunday night would have been indeed a misfortune. Such an effect as it produced in its entirety has never been approached before here. Few outside Russia can have seen it, and in all probability fewer will see it again.

I do not undertake to say whether it is "grand opera" or not; such negative reflexions may be left to those to whom they give satisfaction. The work is called a "Fantastic Opera." It affected the writer as a unique form of choral and orchestral symphony with staging and tableaux. Its appeal, apart from sumptuous scenic effect for which it is designed must depend upon the actors' conception of its weird characterisation.

The demon itself is almost a Hamlet in purgatory seeking release in vain from the spirit of Ophelia in a nunnery. Mr. Hochloff had a reading that could only recall the few who have recreated the great Shakesperian characters. Everything else is subordinate to the realisation of that supernatural character. The great artist has sunk his personality in this imaginative conception. The gorgeous musical coloring, the action of the rest of the play—so far as there is any action—serves to heighten the unearthy impression. To call "Il Demonio" morbid is to miss the point as hopelessly as a similar charge against The Inferno would be.

Two fresh artists for big leading parts were Miss Ossipova, a Prima donna of eminent vocal attainments, and the young tenor, Mr. Busanovski, whose voice is equal to any lyric tenor we have ever heard for sympathetic quality.

A rare pianissimo, only to be heard in the best Russian religious music was obtained in the prayer scene in Act II. Touches of barbaric rhythms in the preludes and in the Caucasian dances lent a new color.

I would also register my admiration for the orchestra. The brass may be insistent to some, but the impressive "bite" and nobility of real slide-trombones is never heard elsewhere in Shanghai. When orchestral mass and attack is intended to dominate, well . . . that is what is wanted. Under Mr. Furst, admirable effects were secured. The work has an angel to defeat the demon's influence. Miss Burskaya held this part at a high level. The whole performance with the exception of a rather suet pudding-ey looking cloud right at the close, preserved a lofty impression strongly felt by the audience. By rights the theater, or one twice as large, should have been crowded.

"LA TRAVIATA" TONIGHT

The opera "La Traviata" which is being presented tonight is a play in three parts. The text was written by Piave and is founded on Dumas' "Lady of the Camelias," but the period is changed to the time of Louis XIV. The music is by Verdi.

It is one of the most beautiful works of its class and is full of lovely melodies; while the story of the unfortunate Violetta has caused many tears to be shed by sympathetic listeners.

Violetta, a courtesan of Paris, is holding a brilliant revel in her home. Among the guests is a young man from Provence, Alfred who is in love with Violetta, and after much persuasion, the spoiled beauty agrees to leave her gay life and retire with him to an apartment near Paris. After a few brief months of happiness, the lovers are discovered by Alfred's father, who pleads with Violetta to release his son from his promises. She yields for his sake, and resumes her former life in Paris. Alfred, not knowing the real cause of her desertion, seeks her out and publicly insults her. Too late he discovers the sacrifice Violetta has made, and when he returns, full of remorse, he finds her dying of consumption, and she expires in his arms.

AMERICA IS PREPARING FOR COAL MINE STRIKE

Owners Refuse To Negotiate And Demand Carrying Out Of Agreement

(Reuter's Service)

New York, October 20.—The strike of the steel workers in the United States is still unsettled, but it appears that the men are gradually returning to work.

A strike of four hundred thousand coalminers is now threatened. The men demand among other things a sixty percent increase of wages, and a thirty-hour week instead of a forty-eight hour week.

The mine-owners say that this would mean a ruinous increase in the price of coal, and refuse to negotiate until the miners promise to carry out the present agreement which is valid until technical peace has been established, and under which the miners received a fifty percent wage increase, and the price of coal was fixed by the Government.

RAILWAY CHANGES MADE AT PEKING CONFERENCE

Question Of Transfer Of Cars Between Lines Is Adjusted

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, October 23.—Some real progress appears to have been made by the railway conference at Peking. It has already been decided that the lines of destination shall be responsible for all charges in connection with the transfer of cars carrying goods over more than one line and that such cars shall be sent on without the tedious delays that hitherto have occurred.

A proviso is to be made, however, that if the cars are not returned to their own lines within a month, demurrage shall be charged. Representatives of some lines insist upon this owing to the belief that their rolling stock would not receive as good treatment on other lines, as on their own.

An alteration is also to be made in settling freights between various lines. Instead of a general charge being made for each car, a balance will be struck between the actual weights carried on behalf of other lines. This will be adjusted monthly by the Chiaotungpu, as a clearing house.

Indeed it is believed that many new measures being introduced will tend to make the department an administrative concern, rather than the political office it has been hitherto.

The vital question of uniformity of rolling stock and, therefore, of supplies will be discussed at the forthcoming conference to be attended by experts from England, America, France and Japan, who have been invited by the Chinese Government to give their advice on standardisation, taking local conditions into consideration. Many railway advisers have advocated this measure, which will now be carried out.

DEFER B.W.W.A. MEETING

The general meeting of the British Women's Work Association, announced for next Monday, has been postponed. The date of the meeting will shortly be announced.

At an extra meeting of the Association, it was the unanimous opinion that work for Siberia should end. The final decision will be made at the general meeting.

Circulars, explaining the suggested scheme of putting the Association on a permanent footing, are being sent to all members, so that they may know the points to be discussed.

There has been a fairly good response to the appeal for worn clothing but so far, there is no means of knowing the total amount collected, excepting the things that have been sent to Mrs. Fletcher's house, 7 Jinkee Road. It is hoped that all who can send will kindly do so without delay.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

The literary department of the American Woman's Club will listen to Mrs. Fearn's talk on Chinese pottery and porcelains, tomorrow afternoon at the Carlton Cafe.

This subject will be the first of the series to be presented during the year on Chinese arts and artcrafts.

A few matters of business will come before the Department promptly at 4:30. It is desired to have members be punctual, to transact the business early.

On Saturday afternoon a visit to a collection of porcelains will be made, about which announcement will be given at the meeting Thursday.

New York, Oct. 26.—It is officially announced that the Post Office department will extend the air mail service which is being operated between New York, Cleveland and Chicago to include the trans-continental route from New York to San Francisco by next Spring.

Gifts For Christmas Should Go Saturday

Empress Mail Will Arrive In U. S. Before Start Of Holiday Rush

Christmas packages for America should be mailed this week or next.

After that it will be too late for delivery in America on time, according to American Postmaster Edward Everett.

The Christmas boats are the Empress of Russia, which sails from here Saturday, and the Nanking and Colombia, both leaving on November 8.

Mailing gifts on the Empress of Russia is urged as giving assurance of careful handling in the United States and less likelihood of loss or damage. For Empress mail will get through before the rush is on.

The Russia arrives in Vancouver on November 16, the Nanking reaches San Francisco November 27 and the Colombia on December 4. The China, leaves here about November 25 and arrives in San Francisco about December 17.

The Nanking arriving from San Francisco Sunday, brought 63 sacks of mail for the American post office. One sack of letters, one of printed matter and 61 bags of parcel post made up the consignment.

fessional Associations, which will dispose of five seats.

"The Union of Towns and the Union of Zemstvos will have five representatives each.

"Higher schools will be represented by one deputy.

"The total number of members of the Congress will be a little over 200."

The draft constitution adopted by the Committee has been submitted to the Cabinet for ratification.

Omsk, Oct. 24.—General headquarters reports:

"The battle is raging on the whole length of the whole front. At certain points our troops are retiring."

According to Bolshevik reports, nineteen representatives of co-operative societies have been shot in Moscow and over a hundred have been shut up in the Butyrsky prison. Representatives of co-operative societies have also been persecuted and a considerable number shot in other towns of Soviet Russia.

A decree has been issued dissolving all co-operative societies and turning them into food-supply bodies. All employes of these societies who do not join the Communist party within a month will be dismissed.

LOYALISTS IN RETREAT

Omsk, October 23.—General headquarters reports in the direction of Tobolsk our troops after violent fighting evacuated the town of Tobolsk and are now 25 versts southeast of the town.

In the direction of Yalutorovsk, north of the railway the enemy's attacks against our troops, 30 versts northwest of the station of Vagay were repulsed.

The enemy's offensive along the railway 15 versts east of the station of Zavodukovskaya has been held by our troops, supported by armored trains. South of the railway, the enemy continues his offensive 40 versts southeast of the station of Zavodoukovskaya.

In the direction of Kurgan north of the railway, the enemy, who has taken the offensive, has occupied a series of villages 25 versts east of the Tobol river.

Along the railway in the region of Vargachy station, the enemy remains inactive. South of the railway our troops are fighting 50 versts south of the station of Lebiajia and along the Troitzk main road, where the enemy has taken the offensive.

NEWS OF JUDENITCH

(Reuter's Service)

Stockholm, October 23.—According to a telegram from Reval, General Judenitch has renewed the offensive on the whole front. A communique issued by him chronicles a successful advance in the directions of Pskoff, Luga and Tsarskoe Selo and mentions the capture of six positions in the vicinity of Tsarskoe Selo. As the result of an attack by tanks, General Judenitch has also advanced to within three miles of Kransnajagorka, the capture of which would mean the fall of Petrograd.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The Peace Conference is still without confirmation of the early reports announcing the entry of the Judenitch army into Petrograd. It has been without news of the military situation for nearly two days.

All sorts of speculative rumors are afloat in Conference circles although nothing definite has been forthcoming. Even diplomatic measures contain no exact information.

The Allied military authorities here have gauged the situation of the two opposing armies and have summed up their conclusions as follows: The delivery of Petrograd from bands of the Bolsheviki if not an accomplished fact is certain within a few days. Judenitch is executing an encircling movement to surround the immediate vicinity of Petrograd and cut off all escape of the Red army. He is occupying the junction of Tosna on the Petrograd-Moscow line and is moving in.

The importance of the fall of Petrograd to the whole situation in Russia is thus summed up by experts. The Allied Russian warships will navigate the Layelagega from where they can bombard the junction of two railroad lines, Petrograd-Vologada and Murmansk-Swanku. The Red army will be forced to retire beyond the Vologada line. This line in itself offers little security to Bolsheviki now being menaced on three sides, on the north by the Archangel lines, on the west by Petrograd, and on the east by the Trans-Siberian lines.

Chinese Entertain Departing Consul

presenting the cup, spoke on the spirit of friendship.

"Since the students' movement, there has been a new feeling of nationalism and a new way of thinking, more free than ever; this freedom of thinking found its origin in the United States, said Mr. Huang.

NEW THOUGHT MANIFEST

"The old Chinese educational system came from Japan. But in 1911, when Dr. Eliot, president-emeritus of Harvard University, came to China, he expressed dissatisfaction with the educational system in China and the Far East," continued the speaker. "Inside of eight years educators here emphasised the importance of the development of the human instinct. In this way, there was a revolution of thought.

"Dr. Dewey's timely arrival in China gave rise to another change in Chinese thought. In a word, the students' movement in China originated from this freedom of though; a new feeling of responsibility. The consequence as we see today is beneficial. Not only will Mr. Sammons and Mr. Cunningham testify to this statement, but they themselves are in a large measure responsible for the origin of this new attitude.

"I hope when Mr. Sammons goes to Melbourne, he will continue his mission in revolutionising the thought of our overseas Chinese in Australia."

Dr. P. W. Kuo said that the motives that prompted the gathering, the presentation and the spirit of fellowship, spoke more eloquently than words. He observed that there were 18 organisations participating in the affair. This meant that Mr. Sammons was popular and had many interests. But more than this, it meant that Chinese have learned the spirit of co-operation, a spirit which is essential to democratic institutions.

MR. SAMMONS REPLIES

Consul-General Sammons replied briefly.

"The future of China," he said, "is a matter of concern for the world. As a parting word, I shall emphasise the importance of getting together and working in unity for some great objective, for some purpose and policy which are constructive. The future possibilities of China are boundless. We all know that China is fast becoming one of the greatest manufacturing countries of the world.

"The advancement of modern American business administrative methods, in connection with the general educational program in China and the matchless opportunity for the development of manufacturing enterprises in the leading cities of China are becoming apparent.

"While it is most important to carry out a systematic educational program, it is of most urgent importance for the progressive Chinese to master the details of modern business administrative procedure in order that the foreign commercial possibilities of the country may receive the most desirable and constructive attention.

FOREIGN TRADE INCREASES

"The foreign trade of China has always increased from year to year, regardless of internal troubles, floods or famines, and has now reached far beyond the billion tael point. This foreign trade is bound to increase more rapidly in the future than in the past and in connection therewith the development of the unlimited manufacturing possibilities of the country is of great vital importance.

"China is destined to hold a very important position as a manufacturing country, not only in supplying its own needs but in shipping its products to other countries. The low cost of industrious and adaptable Chinese labor insures this for China's near future.

"In order to be prepared to participate to the fullest extent in the rapidly expanding foreign trade of the country, and in its future great manufacturing enterprizes, the progressive Chinese, it seems to me, should give most serious attention to modern American business administrative methods.

"Ample statistical data may be had in various quarters to fully support the brief summary above given, with reference to the assured continued increase in China's foreign trade and the already prospective development of future phenomenal manufacturing activities.

"Business and commerce have much to do in these times in ruling the world and controlling the destinies of the various countries," Mr. Sammons concluded.

NEW CONSUL SPEAKS

Consul-General Cunningham spoke of the good relationship between Chinese and Americans. He said that the affection for his Chinese friends will be carried by him to his new post and throughout life. He assured the assembly that he would endeavor to carry out Mr. Sammons' policy. He concluded by expressing the wish that he would soon meet representatives of the organisations and seek to obtain their co-operation in the performance of his duties.

The speeches of Mr. Huang Yen-pei, Messrs. Sammons and Cunningham were interpreted by Mr. Z. T. Ing, professor of Nanking University.

THIS 14 MONTHS BABY

His Only Medicine—Baby's Own Tablets.

Mr. William Brigham, of 153 Corning Avenue, Syracuse, U. S. A., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets are just what they are recommended to be. I have found them very helpful in cases of indigestion. They are also an excellent quieting remedy. They are the only medicine our baby has ever had. He is now fourteen months old, has eleven teeth, weighs twenty-seven pounds and runs all over. I take pleasure in recommending Baby's Own Tablets."

The Canadian children's remedy, Baby's Own Tablets, is guaranteed to contain no opiates, narcotics, or other injurious drugs, and to be equally safe and helpful to the youngest infant as to the child of six years or more. The Tablets are pleasant tasting and gently regulate the stomach and bowels. They are a remedy for colic, indigestion, constipation, simple fever, diarrhoea and worms; make teething easy, promote healthy appetite, restful sleep and regular development.

Sold by chemists, and at 60 cents the vial, post free, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

TONIGHT TONIGHT

is a date that will go down in the musical history of Shanghai as a day marking the successful achievement of a great undertaking. October 28 has been decided upon for the first appearance of the

CAFÉ PARISIEN'S

JAZZ BAND

The Cafe Parisien's motto in all things has been "The best is none too good" and with this thought instilled in their mind the management approached Harry Kerrey some time ago with regard to placing in the Cafe Parisien, an honest-to-goodness, real up-to-the-minute, sure-fire JAZZ band.

The business of cabling and selecting the right men, and also the time set aside for steamship travelling has passed, and the aggregation that will be presented to the Elite of Shanghai tonight consists of the following:—

HARRY KERREY

Who vamps and chords and fakes with zest,
And steals from each man's part the best,
Who plays all night without a rest,
"THE PIANO PLAYER"

PETER LYONS

Who stands up proudly by his chair,
Fiddling with so grand an air,
Who never never cuts his hair,
"THE VIOLINIST"

RUSSELL ELLIS

Who picks away like little birds,
With "oogley" runs of fifths and thirds,
Whose music always fits the words,
"THE BANJOIST"

RAY BRECK

Who swells the muscles of his neck,
And blows out blue notes by the peck,
On harmony chords he shines by heck,
"THE SAXOPHONIST"

ART CODY

Who covers up the dancers' mistakes,
And never reads but always fakes,
A jazz band bunch he makes or breaks,

International Trial Fours Is Taken By British Crew

Taikoo Winner Of Hong Race; 'Moon' Eight Victorious; Miss Lowe Strokes Winning Mixed Boat At Henli

Sunday was the concluding day of the Rowing Club's Autumn Regatta at Henli and again, as on Saturday, oarsmen and spectators alike were favored with ideal weather. Even the slight South-Southwest breeze that obtained on Saturday had died away, and a fine day's sport was witnessed.

Taikoo won the hong fours, Brown and Pears were victors in the griffin pairs, Gram's crew captured the veterans' race for fours, the invitation eights went to the houseboat "Moon" aggregation, the quartette stroked by A. K. Brown got the verdict in the griffin fours, E. T. Byrne's boat registered with the "Midget" club was the first yacht home in the sailing race, the mixed fours' honors were secured by the crew stroked by Miss C. Lowe, while the British crew annexed the international trial fours.

The following are the detailed results:

Hong Fours.—Distance 1 mile.

"TAIKOO"

		lbs.
Bow—	S. D. Begg	128
2	I. D. MacDonald	147
3	J. H. Johns	153
Stroke—	P. W. Blackwell	143
Cox—	E. A. Brodie	135

"EWO"

		lbs.
Bow—	I. Zellensky	127
2	P. C. Mansfield	145
3	D. Campbell	142
Stroke—	T. R. MacDonald	160
Cox—	H. Landers	126

"A. P. C."

		lbs.
Bow—	V. C. Hunt	140
2	A. W. Stubbs	153
3	H. D. Wilding	150
Stroke—	H. P. B. Jones	147
Cox—	R. F. Scott	135

"A. M. & CO."

		lbs.
Bow—	E. A. Dahlin	155
2	E. G. Norman	197
3	K. V. Aagesen	195
Stroke—	C. V. Jensen	165
Cox—	P. Ayres	125

Time: 6 min. 31¾ sec.

Betting was fairly even when the crews took up their positions for this race. Ewo first showed ahead but did not retain the advantage for long, and when the half mile post was reached Taikoo were ahead. They were scarcely seriously challenged from this point onwards and rowing beautifully together at a fairly uniform pace of 36 strokes to the minute won by a couple of lengths from Ewo and A-Si-A, who deadheated for second place, Andersen, Meyer's lot being not far off.

Griffin Pairs.—Distance ¾ mile.

		lbs.
Bow—	H. J. Faers	145
Stroke—	A. K. Brown	160

Bow—	R. Bauld	132
Stroke—	F. Henry	150
Cox—	H. Landers	126

		lbs.
Bow—	G. K. Oliver	126
Stroke—	R. F. Scott	135
Cox—	E. T. Nash	133

Time: 6 min. 8 3-5 sec.

This was a very interesting race to watch, for almost to the very end the issue was in doubt, and it was only owing to his very fine finish that Brown got the verdict, Atkinson first and then Henry holding the lead during the race. All four boats showed fine form, the heavier pair getting the honors as stated.

Veterans Race.—Distance half a mile.

Bow—	O. A. Hansen
2	R. Wood.
3	W. J. Gande.
Stroke—	C. F. Gram.
Cox—	H. Landers.

Bow—	E. Baumann.
2	A. G. Mossop.
3	D. M. Graham.
Stroke—	E. B. Shapherd.
Cox—	R. F. Scott.

It was pleasing to see the interest still evinced in the old sport by the constituents of these crews, especially in the case of Duncan Graham who is probably the longest lived of active oarsmen in the history of the club and whose enthusiasm is as keen as ever. A certain lack of condition was, however, noticeable, which is scarcely to be wondered at, when one arrives at the age when it becomes patent that "there are other games besides golf."

Invitation Eights.—Distance 1 mile.

HOUSE BOAT "MOON"

		lbs.
Bow—	B. A. Anderson	142

5	J. J. Brooks	165
6	F. W. Schlobohm	156
7	P. Chaton	195
Stroke—	K. V. Aagesen	195
Cox—	P. Ayres	125

EX-FIRE BRIGADE

		lbs.
Bow—	P. C. Mansfield	145
2	W. J. Brown	143
3	G. Wallace	135
4	H. P. B. Jones	147
5	J. J. Evans	190
6	R. S. Haskell	180
7	J. R. Harder	194
Stroke—	C. V. Jensen	165
Cox—	D. M. Graham	160

Time: 5 min. 50 1-5 sec.

It was a pretty sight to see three eights marshalled up before the starter. The S.V.C. first showed ahead, but "keeping it long and strong" the "Moon" crew established a lead which was retained to the finish, the Ex-Fire Brigade being quite outclassed.

Griffin Fours.—Distance ¾ mile.

2	G. Danson	138
3	L. G. Day	156
Stroke—	A. J. Heal	135
Cox—	C. F. Gram	137

Time: 5 min. 12 1-5 sec.

The griffin fours is quite one of the old classic events of the rowing season, and the race on Sunday was one of the most interesting to witness of the entire regatta. At scarcely any point in the race could one predict with anything like certainty who the winners would be, but rowing extremely well together, the evident result of carefull training, Brown's crew annexed this race in the excellent time stated.

Sailing Race

	Boat.
1.—E. T. Byrne (Midget)	No. 1
2.—E. B. Shepherd (S. Y. C.)	No. 12
3.—A. L. Anderson (Midget)	No. 25
4.—H. Heriofsen (Midget)	No. 28
5.—J. H. R. Shaw (S. Y. C.)	No. 18
6.—R. W. Davis (S. Y. C.)	No. 6

The sailing race was a pleasing variant on the regular rowing program. There was, as stated in our preamble, very little breeze. Mr. Byrne won the handsome binoculars presented by the commodore of the Yokohama Yacht Club, Mr. W. W. Campbell.

Mixed Fours

Bow—	Miss N. Johnston.
2	E. Muller.
3	G. V. Jensen.
Stroke—	Miss C. Lowe.
Cox—	Miss D. Brodie.

The ladies had a chance to display their prowess in this event, three crews entering, stroked by the Misses Lowe, Brown and Pote Hunt, respectively. Miss Lowe's quartette was undobtedly the best of the three, Miss Brown's being next.

International Trial Fours.—Distance 1 mile.

GREAT BRITAIN

		lbs.
Bow—	W. J. Brown	143

		lbs.
Bow—	E. A. Dahlin	155
2	P. Chaton	195
3	R. S. Haskell	180
Stroke—	H. D. Rodger	182
Cox—	H. Landers	126

Time: 6 min. 21 sec.

The concluding event on the day's program was one of the most keenly contested of the entire regatta, and it was only by a very narrow margin indeed that the British crew secured the honors.

For the greater part of the race both boats were almost level, though Great Britain had a slight advantage. America challenged in the last 300 yards or so, but the British four were able to respond satisfactorily, and might have won by even a little more.

FOOTBALL CANDIDATES PRACTICE TOMORROW

American Gridiron Stars To Get Signals Early; Gunboat Has Team

Signal practice at seven o'clock tomorrow morning!

Candidates should wear rubber-soled shoes!

There is a possibility of a practice game before Thanksgiving Day as the Wilmington will have a team!

Truly the outlook is good for American football!

At a meeting of candidates for the eleven held yesterday noon at the Race Course, these three facts and some others were cut loose by Bradley, who is to coach the aggregation that is to face the U. S. S. Elcano football team on said Thanksgiving morning.

More men with football experience are making themselves known. Bobby Gill should make a halfback position with little trouble; Charley Glauque in his younger days was a tackle at Oberling. And there are others.

Suits will be provided by the American Athletic Club under whose auspices the game is to be staged. The question of shoes will be settled later. There are American footballs in town and a couple of rule books. The outlook is far from dismal.

Tomorrow will be the first practice. Everyone is urged to be out at the uncanny hour.

RUGBY MEETING

The Shanghai Rugby Football Club will hold its annual general meeting this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the committee room of the Shanghai Rowing Club. All those who are interested in Rugby are requested to attend.

RACING AT KIANGWAN

The 58th meeting of the International Recreation Club will be held at Kiangwan next Saturday afternoon. The first saddling bell will be rung at 1:15 o'clock and special trains will leave Shanghai at 12:40 and 1:10 o'clock.

Football At Nanyang

It is estimated that there were 4,000 spectators watching the match at Nanyang College last Saturday afternoon. The big crowd was quite enthusiastic and delighted to see Nanyang defeat a combination team of the Shanghai Recreation and Socony football teams by a 2-0 score. The side lines were two or three deep at places and the college windows and verandahs were packed—a sure sign of how football is getting a grip on our Chinese friends.

Nanyang College second team defeated Jewish Recreation Club on the Nanyang College ground on Sunday afternoon before a crowd of a thousand or more supporters. Score 3 to 1 in favor of Nanyang. Two penality kicks awarded to Nanyang one of which failed to materialise.

Nanyang College teams are open to games any Saturday or Sunday afternoons and will be pleased to meet any teams who will give them the pleasure of a game. Communicate with Mr. A. H. Leslie, c-o Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., the Nanyang College's coach.

Local Shopkeepers Inaugurate Union

The Shanghai Shopkeepers League was formally inaugurated Sunday at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce with an opening ceremony. Mr. Chen Chi-ming, a Chinese lawyer, was elected its first chairman. Speeches were made by Mr. C. C. Nieh, manager of the Heng Foong Cotton Mill, Mr. H. Y. Moh, manager of the Hou Sung and Teh Dah Cotton Mills, Mr. N. T. Yang, representing the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs of Shanghai, Mr. Huang Yei-pei, vice-president of the Kiangsu Educational Association, Mr. Chow Tsing-chai, president of the Shanghai Commercial Federation, Mr. Tai Chi-tou, a noted Chinese journalist and Mr. Ma Tsing of Tientsin.

Most Chinese shops hoisted up the national colors in honor of the occasion. A detachment of boy scouts were in attendance during the ceremony. Mr. Tang Chi-dau was chairman of the meeting.

To Hold Service Friday For Hero Of Revolution

Friday being the third anniversary of the death of General Huang Hsin, the revolutionary hero, a memorial service will be held at the residence of the family of the general, 393 Ferguson Road, commencing 9 o'clock. Among those in charge of the service are Dr. Sun Yat-sen, Mr. Sun Hung-yi, Mr. Tang Shao-yi, General Hu Han-min, Mr. Chang Ping-ling, Mr. Chang Chi and General Tan Jen-fung.

CHANGE AT PEKING

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, October 25.—It is reported that as a result of the Cabinet meeting yesterday, Chu Shen, Minister of Justice, will be transferred to the Chiaotungpu with Ting Shih-yuan as Vice-Minister of Communications.

Vaudeville At Olympic

Shanghai's vaudeville season, which opens tomorrow night at the Olympic Theater, promises an unusual combination of variety artists and motion pictures.

Mr. Charles Margelis presents the All-Star Vaudeville Company and the management of the theater has arranged for the showing of "The Curse of Eve," a six-act moral lesson.

After two nights the entire program is to be changed and another picture, "It May Be Your Daughter," will be shown. This latter film was produced by the Moral Uplift Society of America. The matinee on Saturday will feature "Wild Animals."

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.
The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better." JOHN J. LEFFA, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"For several years I recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., New York City.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies." VICTOR H. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy." A. F. PEELER, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, laxative effect and freedom from harm." EDWARD PARRISH, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments." J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Every day your complexion pays toll to dust and wind

The rough, cold winds chap and roughen the skin; dry heated air draws and parches it. The constant strain under which we live—the ceaseless activity of crowded days, the constant effort, the lack of rest—all these things take daily toll of the complexion.

You can protect your complexion from the wear and tear of both summer and winter—can prevent that tired, drawn look from appearing in your face, by giving your skin the care it needs.

Apply a little Pond's Vanishing Cream when you motor or travel; rub it in lightly. This will protect the sensitive pores from grit and grime, will keep your skin free from that parched feeling that generally follows exposure to dust and dirt.

It has a wonderfully beautifying effect, and as a base for powder it is so effective that one powdering is sufficient for the whole evening.

This fragrant, dewy cream contains a skin-softening ingredient of great value, one that skin specialists recognize as most efficient in keeping the skin supple, for giving it the transparent freshness everyone admires.

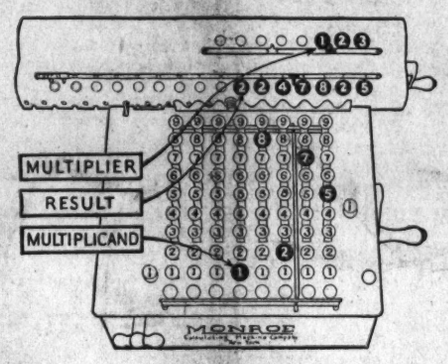
Calculating Machine



Examine the diagram above. It shows why you cannot make a mistake with the Monroe. Note that Multiplier, Multiplicand and Result are always before you. The same thing holds good whether you are dividing, subtracting, or adding. This machine is so simple to operate, too. Anyone can do it, from the office-boy to you.

Use the Monroe on all figure work. Those long calculations of exchange, for instance, are done in seconds on the Monroe instead of minutes by any other method.

CHIROPRACTIC

CHIROPRACTIC (KI-RO-PRAK-TIK) is a scientific method of removing the cause of disease (acute or chronic) without the aid of drugs, surgery, or appliances. The science of Chiropractic is based upon a correct knowledge of brain, spine, spinal cord and nerves emanating therefrom.

If others failed to relieve you, why remain sick and still suffer!

Obituary

Mr. Shen Poo-cheng

Death took place Sunday evening of Mr. Shen Poo-cheng, one of the best-known Chinese artists of the modern school, in Siccawei where he had been recuperating.

Mr. Shen has been in failing health during the last four months on account of injuries he received sometime ago in Hangchow at a fall from a great height. Mr. Shen was doing some scenic painting and used to spend days among the beautiful hills at the Chekiang capital when one day his body was found unconscious in a valley by sedan chair coolies. In spite of the best possible medical care, the artist never recovered entirely. Last summer a relapse took place, which proved to be fatal.

Mr. Shen's drawings were in high demand by the local Chinese newspapers. Practically every magazine or newspaper has had some work of art by the deceased. The public will still recall the clever works in Shanghai Puck, the humorous magazine published by Mr. Shen and his brother, Mr. Y. D. Shen, who met with premature death on account of the antagonism of the Northern administration.

MR. C. A. DE FIGUEIREDO

Mr. Carlos Augusto de Figueiredo of Messrs. Shewan, Tomes and Company, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. de Figueiredo, died yesterday at his home, 48 Boone Road, after a short illness.

Mr. de Figueiredo was 18 years old, a member of the Portuguese Company, Shanghai Volunteer Corps, and honorary treasurer of the Boys' Athletic Club. He was well known as a cross-country runner and swimmer and last year, representing the International Swimming Club, won the Hamlin Shield.

The funeral will leave the Church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus this afternoon at four o'clock and burial will be at Bubbling Well Cemetery at five o'clock.

American Shipping

FURTHER light is thrown on the ambitious and thoroughgoing plan of the American Shipping Board for development of American shipping in the Pacific by the announcement in last Sunday's CHINA PRESS of the fact that the Pacific Mail is about to establish a new service, Shanghai to India. Seven vessels are to be put on the run, starting December 1. The ships are steel freight carriers of eleven knots speed and are new. They will connect here with the trans-Pacific lines.

The vastness of the Emergency Fleet Corporation's operations is revealed in the recent official bulletin which showed that up to late July the corporation had laid the keels of vessels of a total of 11,576,861 deadweight tons. Of these 1,447 were steel craft of 9,594,711 deadweight tons.

The present program has 18 months to run. What the corporation will do after that has not been determined, but by the end of the 18 months keels will have been laid for vessels approximating 20,000,000 tons deadweight. Plans for the employment of this vast fleet naturally are being expanded from week to week, and it is certain in this connection that the Pacific will get its full allotment for the Pacific Coast chambers of commerce are watching the plans with intensest interest.

An exchange recently brought announcement of the plan to build two monster greyhounds of approximately 56,000 tons to ply between Montauk Point and Great Britain and make the trans-Atlantic trip in four days. This is only suggestive of a larger enterprise of the shipping board. It has been a cause of chagrin to many Americans heretofore that in crossing the Atlantic they had to travel in British or German or French liners. With the two monsters that are to be built and the best of the German liners we have taken over, this will not be the case hereafter.

Passenger traffic across the Atlantic is expected to be increased greatly so soon as affairs become composed in Europe and industry Together with that service it is intended to develop a land end by which through bills of lading may be issued from any point of concentration in America to any port in the world. In other words, the shipping board means to make it as easy for an American manufacturer to despatch his goods to the most distant port in the world as it is for him to ship goods from his factory to Chicago or San Francisco or Cleveland or to New York.

Not only that, but it is intended to have regularity in sailings from the principal ports of the Atlantic, the Gulf and the Pacific in freight service as there usually is in regard to passenger service between New York and Liverpool.

First Anniversary Of The Czecho-Slovak Republic

(Contributed)

ONE year ago today The National Assembly at Prague declared the independence of the Czecho-Slovak Republic amidst scenes of indescribable enthusiasm and the ringing of church bells all over the country.

The old bondage which had bound the Kingdoms of Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia and the Slovakia to the House of Hapsburg was broken forever and the dream of Mitteluropa and the road to the East had finally vanished.

That day proved the wisdom of the policy of the Allies with regard to the Austrian Empire, and the stable and progressive policy adopted by the new Republic under the wise and far-sighted rule of President Massaryk has made Czecho-Slovakia today the rallying point of all forces of order and progress.

Prague, its old and renowned capital, has already become a center of European Allied diplomacy and is destined to play a leading part in this regard in the future. All of the Allied states today have their Ambassadors at Prague and as Dr. Benesh, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, has pointed out with just pride, Czecho-Slovakia today has the friendship and confidence of all the Allies in a degree superior to any of the other new states.

What the valiant Czecho-Slovaks have done for Russia and civilisation in stemming the tide of anarchy pressing from the west during these last long months of indescribable hardships is well known if not fully appreciated. Now the remaining remnants of that gallant army are going home to share in the fruits of the common victory and to enjoy the rewards they so fully deserve. True to the traditional friendship existing between the two peoples, the French Government has instructed its Consulate in Shanghai to protect and aid the Czecho-Slovaks living in Shanghai who have found in the person of the French Consul-General here a never failing support for which deep gratitude is felt by the delegate of the government, Mr. Max Engel, and all his co-nationals.

Samuel Gompers' Defense Of The Steel Strikers

Washington, September 26.—Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, was a witness today before the Senate Committee on Education and Labor, which is investigating the strike in the steel industry. He was on the stand for four hours, and in general supported the charges of brutality and unfairness which John Fitzpatrick, Chairman of the National Strike Committee, told of yesterday. Mr. Gompers, as did Fitzpatrick, said the strike had been called by a vote of only about one-fifth of the men employed in the steel industry; that is, 100,000. About 180,000 had been organised, he added, by the time the strike went into effect.

Mr. Gompers charged that the present situation was partly due to the influx of immigrants from Europe, who were brought into the country, he said, by the steel and other corporations in the twenty-five years that preceded the outbreak of the European war. These immigrants came in, he continued, as the result of an agreement between the corporations and trans-Atlantic steamship lines, among them the two principal German lines.

Mr. Gompers also made it plain that a strike was sought in the Bethlehem plants, and that the same tactics which were pursued with the United States Steel Corporation were being followed with the Bethlehem Company.

ISSUES DEFINED BY GOMPERS

"What we would like to have, Mr. Gompers," said Senator Kenyon, "is a frank statement as to the issues involved in this strike, the genesis of the strike, the reason it was not postponed when President Wilson requested its postponement, your own part in the strike—in fact, all that you know about it."

"The issues in this strike," Mr. Gompers replied, "involve the right of the steel workers to be heard through the medium of their own representatives, their own spokesmen, the spokesmen of their own choosing. In other words, the right of the steel workers to have their own day in court, the court that is to determine their rate of wages, the hours and the condition of their employment. They demand their right to a voice in these matters. For many years, certainly twenty-five, the right of the association together of workers has been denied and denied with all the power, the wealth, influence and domination of the steel corporations. It has often been denied them by means that are illegal, unwarrantable and brutal."

Mr. Gompers spoke with great earnestness. At times he pounded the desk with his clenched fists. He was bitter in his denunciation of the steel corporations as he referred to the statement that had been made often of late that a majority of the men on strike are men of foreign birth; large numbers of them non-citizens.

"It has been said," exclaimed Mr. Gompers, "that the men on strike are foreigners, that a majority of them are of foreign birth and that thousands are unnaturalised. That may be true to a large extent. No doubt it is true that a majority of them are of foreign birth. But how did these men get here? They were brought here by the steel corporations. I am not accurately informed as to whether they are citizens or not, or as to the number or the degree of their citizenship, whatever it may be. These men, most of whom are of foreign birth, were brought to the United States by the corporations concerned in a systematic effort to eliminate the native-born Americans, and these foreigners were given preference by the companies over the native and naturalised Americans, and now the corporations have a harvest to reap. These corporations brought about the conditions of which they now complain."

Continuing, Mr. Gompers said that some years ago he made an investigation of that phase of the immigration problem which involved the bringing of laborers into the country for employment in steel mills and other industries. In the course of that investigation he said that evidence, documentary and otherwise, was placed in his hands which showed that certain great corporations in this country had entered into collusion with certain foreign steamship interests to bring these immigrants into this country by the wholesale. He named the two former great German lines, the Hamburg-American and the North German Lloyd, as two of the principal foreign transportation lines engaged in the collusion. These lines, he asserted, were practically subsidised by the great corporations "to bring workers from all parts of the world into the United States.

"It was," he added, "a systematic, wholesome immigration scheme, and any one who had the opportunity could see the large gangs of men at our various ports, these gangs having in charge the foreign workers brought in by the corporations of this country. It was all a part of the systematic effort that was made to eliminate American workmen from the plants and now they are reaping the harvest. I called attention to all this years ago."

"When did this thing you complain of begin?" asked Senator Phipps of Colorado.

"About twenty-five years ago, and it continued up to the beginning of the war in Europe."

"Was there any effort made to stop it, either by the Federation of Labor or any other agency?"

"Yes, Sir."

"Will you give us documents you possess in this matter, together with dates and such other information bearing on the subject as you may have?"

"I shall try and give to the committee every document in our possession."

"Now, to revert to the steel strike," continued Mr. Gompers. "I should like to point out that under the regulations of the steel companies, particularly the United States Steel Corporation, the hours of labor have always been abnormally long. They have seemed to think that they could not operate unless they worked their men seven days a week and 365 days a year, with a shift from day to night work, or vice versa, every fourteen days, and on those fourteenth shift days the men worked twenty-four hours."

TELLS OF ESPIONAGE

"Does this practice of seven days a week every week in the year still continue?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"In many of the mills, yes. As a matter of fact, I am informed, in most of them. And I wish to add that the right of the men to organise, to associate themselves together, has always met with the determined opposition of the steel mill authorities. I tell you on my own authority that the requests that came from the workers to the American Federation of Labor to organise them resulted in a system of espionage that beggars description. The men who made these efforts were spotted by the detectives or the agents of the corporations, who spied upon them, dogged their steps from the mills to their homes, and sought by various means to provoke the men into doing something that would jeopardise their cause.

"I say to you that fully 80 percent of the private detectives and detective agencies of this country have been employed to spy on the workers in the employ of the steel and other great industries. The thing became so bad that they even discharged men from the mills for grumbling at conditions, while those who had the temerity to attend a meeting were watched, tagged, reported, and discharged from work the morning following. The whole thing has amounted to a gigantic espionage system, the purpose of which was to put fear in the hearts of these men and to make them understand that if they organised or attempted to organise they would be dismissed and blacklisted, and once blacklisted it was practically impossible for them to find employment anywhere else.

"The tyranny went so far that halls rented by the workers were closed and the doors locked against them. Men on the way to meetings had to pass through lines of detectives and thugs and run the gamut of sometimes one hundred or more men on either side of them. The workers were charged upon, they were assaulted, some of them brutually beaten.

"Can you cite instances of these things," Senator Sterling asked.

"Yes, Sir, I am informed, since I came into this room, that at McKeesport, Penn., yesterday, that an order was issued prohibiting all meetings of the steel workers in that city. The halls and even the offices of the local unions were closed, I am informed."

"I suppose the authorities took the action complained of on the theory that under conditions such as now exist in the Pennsylvania steel fields the assembling of men in crowds tends to create excitement and disorder," Senator Sterling remarked.

"I don't know what the theory is," replied Mr. Gompers, "but the fact is that it was to prevent the men and the union officials from conferring for their own legitimate protection and to make the strike effective. The places closed were private halls and not public meetings. They have no right to invade a private office, capable of holding less than a dozen men. I have no hesitation in saying that the first duty of the authorities is to maintain order, but in maintaining order the consitutional rights of the citizen must be guaranteed. Only in war should the rights of assembly and free speech be restricted, and they should never be invaded in behalf of the private interests of a private profiteering corporation.

"I know," continued Mr. Gompers and he pounded the desk, "that to a very large degree the public authorities in many Pennsylvania districts are under the direct domination of the United States Steel Corporation, the corporation that has stated its purpose to run its mills under the misnomer of the open shop, which means that so far as possible they mean to run a closed shop, closed to union men."

100,000 CAUSED STRIKE

"Will you tell why this strike was called? We would like to hear it explained by you," said Senator McKellar of Tennessee.

Mr. Gompers' answer did not exactly tally with a statement made yesterday by John Fitzpatrick, Chairman of the National Committee, which organised the strike. Fitzpatrick said that the organisation of the steel workers was initiated by the American Federation of Labor and not at the request of the men employed in the industry. Mr. Gompers said the organisation of the men began several years ago in response to requests from the workers.

"Some years ago," he said, "in response to the many requests for organisation that came to us from the men we sent a number of organisers into the field. These organisers were arrested and driven from the towns, one of them so bludgeoned that he died from the effects of his treatment a few weeks later. I refer to a man who was one of our most efficient organisers, the late Jefferson Davis Pierce of Worcester, Mass.

"In view of everything that was brought to our attention we began a campaign of organisation and sent eight or ten men into the field. We also issued calls to the workers to attend meetings, these calls being in twenty-two or twenty-three different languages."

"Do you mean to say you use that many languages in dealing with these men?"

"Yes, a call on a single sheet appears on that sheet in twenty-two different languages. I shall be glad to furnish the committee with one of the printed circulars I have referred to."

Mr. Gompers then told of the authorisation in 1917 by the St. Paul convention of the American Federation of Labor of the National Committee to organise the iron and steel workers and on his own appointment as first Chairman of the committee. He corroborated yesterday's statement by Fitzpatrick that the strike was voted by 100,000 men, or one-fifth of the total employed in the steel industry. He said the Bethlehem Steel Company was now being organised.

TRYING TO CLOSE PLANTS

"What is the attitude of the Federation of Labor regarding the employment of non-union men," Senator Phipps asked.

"The Federation," replied Mr. Gompers, "has nothing to do with that. The policy is to organise the shops 100 percent and when a non-union man comes in to get him to join the union. I should say that in all my experience I have never known of a workingman voluntarily refusing to join a union."

"In determining the question as to whether or not a strike shall be called at the Bethlehem plant, said Senator Sterling, "what will the procedure be?"

"A committee will approach the officials of the corporation and ask a conference at which the grievances of the men will be presented and an endeavor made to adjust such difficulties as may develop."

"Will the Bethlehem workmen be represented by men of their own choosing or by officials of the American Federation of Labor," Senator Sterling asked.

"The likelihood is," Mr. Gompers answered, "that they will be men chosen by the men themselves, regardless of whether they are in the employ of the corporation or not."

"I suppose along the same lines as were followed in the case of the United States Steel Corporation and Judge Gary," said Senator Sterling.

"Yes, approximately along the same lines."

At this point Senator Phipps read excerpts from addresses delivered ten or eleven years ago by President Wilson, who was then President of Princeton University. In one of these addresses the President was quoted as having said that he was a "fierce partisan of the open shop," and that the attitude of labor at that time was "to give as little as possible."

"I know all about that address," replied Mr. Gompers, "and I think it is as unfair to quote Dr. Wilson of 1909 as to what his present day views may be as it is to quote views that William Z. Foster, Secretary of the National Committee, may have had years ago in order to create the impression that those ancient views represent what Mr. Foster thinks at this time. Mr. Foster has frankly admitted that he was totally in error when he wrote that book on syndicalism."

"In the various conversations I have had with President Wilson I have found that Woodrow Wilson has given every honorable, lawful effort he could to bring about a settlement of the controversy between the employers and their employes."

"Now let's get down to brass tacks and talk about this steel strike," said Senator Kenyon.

"Yes, let's talk about the strike," returned Mr. Gompers. "I note this matter of the closed shop is always cropping up. I want to say that in my letter to Judge Gary there was not the remotest reference to the question of a closed shop. We had neither the intention nor the desire to discuss the open shop with Gary. It has been lugged into the controversy by Judge Gary. It is not an issue.

"Gary says that his employes can always present a grievance to the Steel Corporation. Imagine a common laborer going up against Judge Gary. Imagine the chance that would be afforded that poor devil by this official of a billion dollar corporation! In a corporation where an official does not know one man among 100,000 in its employ there is no reason for the assumption made by Gary that any worker can present his grievances. He says the workers can meet and select a committee to confer with the officials. I say there is no such possibility."

At the request of Senator Keyon, Mr. Gompers then stated in detail, as already published, and as testified to yesterday by Fitzpatrick, the steps leading up to the decision to call the strike, and the futile efforts made by the President and Gompers himself to defer it. Mr. Gompers said the men could not have been held back under any consideration, so long as Judge Gary refused a frank discussion.

Secretary Foster was not now an executive officer of the strike, and performed only secretarial work, said the witness. I would not have served with Foster if he had not changed his views," Mr. Gompers said.

In answer to a question by Senator Phipps, Mr. Gompers said that the eight-hour day was now pretty generally the rule throughout the steel industry. He understood it was more "of an order than an observance," and that the average work day in the steel mills remained from ten to twelve hours.

COULDN'T GIVE WAGE FIGURE

"What of the wages in the steel industry?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"I cannot give accurate figures," replied Mr. Gompers, "but I may add that it is a favorite pastime of the big interests to pay a few of their men very high wages—for instance, $30, and even $60 a day. These few high-paid men are the sweaters. They are the pacemakers."

"I have figures before me which seem to indicate that wages in the steel industry have increased since 1914 over 116 percent, and that the average daily wage is now $6," said Senator Sterling.

"The records will also show," replied Mr. Gompers, "that the mill profits have increased something like 400 percent. The average you give includes selling agents and everybody else. Where one man gets $60 the other 5,000 get 35 cents an hour. Averages can be made to indicate most anything."

"Thousands of these employes own stock, do they not?" Senator Sterling asked.

"Yes, they have the opportunity of owning stock just like every native born American has a chance to become President, but only one can be President. I don't deny that thousands own stocks. What we want is less charity, better wages and better conditions to live under."

When Senator Sterling asked if it was true that the Steel Corporation spends millions annually in welfare work among its employes Mr. Gompers said he understood that was true. He added that "the seamen call such work hellfare work."

Mr. Gompers strongly disapproved of the bonus system which is said to apply in the steel industry. He replied that it is the pay envelope and not the bonus that determines the case and that the workers "do not want that which is gratuitously given."

"What we ask," he said "is a minimum wage to guarantee a fair standard of living conditions."

"How is it possible for a man to work twelve hours a day for 365 days in succession?" asked Senator McKellar.

"It can't be done for a very long time," replied the witness.

"The time has come," ended Mr. Gompers, "for a new understanding between the employer and his employes, between man and man, regardless of their station in life. A higher degree of justice and fairness must prevail in American life."

The hearing was adjourned until next Wednesday when Judge Gary will be heard. Secretary Foster of the strike committee will follow him.

It was noted that Mr. Gompers made no reference to a settlement of the strike through arbitration initiated by the President.

Suns Great Machine Guns Explained

By Garrett P. Serviss

Whenever a magnetic storm occurs it is almost certain that the sun is at the bottom of the disturbance. "Old Sol" has been too often detected behaving in a suspicious manner on such occasions to leave much doubt in the minds of astronomers that he is the mischief maker. The only real question is: Just how does he do it?

A widely accepted view is that of Maunder, which assumes that streams or shafts of electro-magnetic energy, in some form, go out from certain regions on the solar surface, probably within the limits of the spot-belts, and rotate like spokes with the turning of the sun on its axis. In these shafts the radiant energy is transmitted with a speed comparable with that of light, and where they strike the earth they give rise to a magnetic storm.

The sun might be compared to a globe-shaped caisson-battery, rotating on a horizontal axis, with guns projecting around its central belt, and pouring streams of projectiles, as continuous as shafts of water from fire-hose, out into the space through which the planets have to travel in their orbits. The streams swing round with the sun's rotation, and that is what gives a peculiarly sinister aspect to this strange bombardment.

4,533 MILES AN HOUR

Let us look at this a little. The diameter of the sun is about 866,000 miles. Its radius is therefore 433,000 miles and its circumference about 2,720,000 miles. Its rate of rotation on its axis (it turns in the same direction as the earth), is such that it makes one turn in about 25 days, or 600 hours. Hence, any point on its surface advances at a speed of 4,533 miles per hour. That, then, is the speed with which the shafts of electric energy swing round at the surface of the sun.

Or we may say that the pointing of any one of these tremendous solar guns, pouring out an unceasing stream of projectiles, is shifted at the rate of 4,533 miles per hour, or about 75½ miles per minute. But this is at the sun's surface. At the distance of the earth, which is 93,000,000 miles from the sun, the space swept over in one minute by the projectile shaft becomes about 16,200 miles, so that in half a minute it would sweep across the entire diameter of the earth.

Now, curiously enough, some recent studies of magnetic storms seem to show that they do begin at one edge of that side of the earth which happens at the time to face the sun, about half a minute before they are felt at the opposite edge.

MANY DO NOT STRIKE EARTH

The swinging shaft from the sun, moving spoke-wise, first strikes the earth at the edge of its western, or afternoon, side and sweeps in 30 seconds across its face to the edge of its eastern, or morning, side.

This living in the presence, or in the sphere of influence, or of bombardment, of so dispensive a center of mighty energies as the sun has its disadvantages, especially for nervously-sensitive people, for, while the technical definition of a magnetic storm refers only to disturbances of the magnetic needle, and of electro-magnetic apparatus, yet, as millions are convinced by personal experience, there is some strange element, probably electric, in the weather changes that is not accounted for by meteorological tables, but which manifests its capricious powers for mischief in exceedingly convincing twinges.

Possibly the sufferers from such vagaries might find a degree of comforting pride in the reflection that they may have faced and survived many a stream of electric bullets swept across the earth by one of the sun's machine guns, when their less sensitive neighbors were safe under the bomb-proof of nescience and obtusity.

Many of the solar shafts probably do not strike the earth, or any other planet. Some of them may be aimed above or below the plane of the planetary orbits, and even those which lie exactly in the orbital plane of a planet may miss it, for during the time that the shaft is in an active state the planet may not be at the point where the stream of electricity crosses its orbit. How long a shaft remains active, and whether they break forth again and again at the same point on the sun's surface are unanswered questions.

Future Citizens

By Dr. Wm. A. McKeever

(Professor in the University of Kansas and an Authority on Child Training)

We must train our children to understand that the man and woman who work in shop and field are coming to their own, that the voice of the skilled artisan is becoming a great factor in the shaping of immediate events. The sweatship is no more, the slave driver is gone and only those of soft, dainty, untrained hands are trembling at the future.

Not only is the tense economic condition of the present a winning fight to give all classes of common workmen a fairer share in the product of their toil, but its permanent settlement brings us squarely to the task of seeking a rearrangement of the child training problem. If the temporary high rank of industrialism is to endure, I contend that we must proceed about as follows to lay a firm foundation for it:

Teach every boy and girl to work with his hands and to do his share of the routine drudgery while his body is young and green.

Have all the heavier manual labor performed by the young men, say, of college age, and regard them as thus passing through a valuable and necessary period of apprenticeship.

See to it as the next step that every young man and young woman shall spend at least a brief period as a skilled artisan, so that those who find work a heart choice may remain in it for their vocation.

Recruit from the class next above, the foremen, managers, organisers and intellectuals as the peculiar aptitudes may draw them and as conditions may require them.

Teach the young early and seriously the meaning of the leisure time. It is cheering to see a gang of workmen coming home at mid-afternoon with the 8-hour day completed, but depressing to think that they probably do not know how to make intelligent use of their free time.

The Government is now spending millions on vocational training of the masses, and this alone is doing much to dignify the status of common industry. But there is now a need quite as urgent for definite courses in avocational training. A good workman may be bad man, or even a dangerous man, during his long, free evening period.

So, working society must be taught how to come home at the close of the shortened day; how to wash up, take a bath, change its clothes, where to go when it is "all dressed up," and what to do next. And the place to teach all this is in form of definite courses in the grammar school and the high school.

At length, the industrial class will not only rule the land, but it will absorb all other classes. Once a youth has passed through all the stages of training outlined above he is permanently a skilled artisan and spiritually a member of the cult, even though his final employment may keep him in an office or at a desk.

And, like the one who by choice remains in an industrial vocation, he will be trained to spend his free time in reading, enjoying his family, attending worship, working for the common good and mingling freely in society with God's great common people.

All hail the day of the intelligent, skilled, governing artisan. Let us all usher him in through a spiritualised industrial development of the young.

A Hero, After All

BY S. E. KISER

When Dad was well and going strong,
And never had a holiday,
The bills were settled right along—
He always seemed to find a way,
He kicked because my shoes wore out
And at the price of Sister's hat;
But Dad's a pretty good old scout,
I guess we'll all agree to that.

Sometimes when we would have to wait
And dinner would be getting cold,
Ma scolded Dad for bein' late,
'N' I'll tell the world that Ma can scold.

I guess she often thought he lied
When he was tryin' to explain;
One night last week he nearly died,
But now they say he's on the gain,
He's been in bed a month or two,
And, gee, the stack of bills we've got!
It's lucky that he's pullin' through,
Because we need him here a lot.

Ma used to say he had no right
To be a fool, like other men;
She always worried when he'd light
Another stogie, now and then.

I heard her last night, when she spoke
To Doctor Griggs concernin' Dad;
She said he seemed to want to smoke,
And that's a sign that made her glad,
Sis nurses him and strokes his head,
And we have all been findin' out,
Since Dad's been sick and nearly dead,
That he's a pretty good old scout.

HONEY CREAM CAKE

One-quarter cupful margarine, 1 cupful sour cream, 1 cupful honey, ½ cupful brown sugar, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoonful salt, 1 teaspoonful soda, ¼ teaspoonful cinnamon, ¼ teaspoonful nutmeg, 2½ cupfuls pastry flour.

Cream the margarine, add the sugar and honey. Beat the eggs, combine with the sour cream, and add to the mixture. Sift together the dry ingredients and add, stirring constantly. Pour into a large, shallow, greased pan. Bake in a moderate oven for about three-quarters of an hour. Cool in the pan and cut into squares when cold. This cake keeps well.

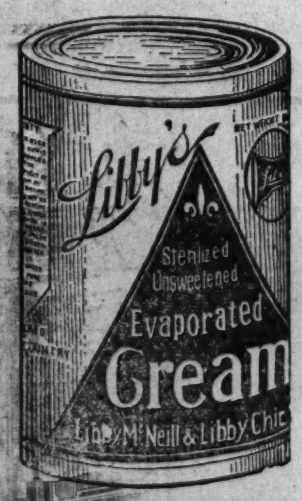
You wouldn't think of drinking unboiled water; Are you as careful about the milk you drink?



Many cases of sickness in Shanghai—sickness which sometimes has a fatal termination—are traced to a tainted source of milk supply.

LIBBY'S Evaporated Cream

comes from healthy cows, raised under expert supervision. It is just pure rich milk, evaporated and condensed.

STUDENTS EXCHANGED WITH U.S. IN FRANCE

Four American College Girls Arrive In Paris To Begin Work In Schools

(American Press Wireless)

Paris, October 20.—Four American college girls have arrived in Paris as the first group of exchange students and have enrolled in French schools. They are: Miss Lillian Severance of Buffalo, Miss Katherine Quiggs, of Richmond, Ind., at Lycee Victory-Duruy in Paris, and Miss Eugenie Veinet of Washington at Saint Germaine, and Miss Helen M. Totty of New York at Caon.

The girls are now full fledged French Lyceennes and although finding everything different are becoming accustomed to the new school life.

The arrival of the four girls marks the beginning of interesting experiments in which France has opened her schools to a certain number of American girls and the United States has opened its schools to France girls. One hundred and fifty French girls studied in American colleges last year at the invitation of the heads of the schools and a few days before the four girls left the United States, one hundred more French girls reached America to enroll in various institutions of learning. Twenty American girls are expected to attend French schools this year under the plan made by Dr. Robert L. Kelly of New York, acting for the French High Commissioner in the United States, providing for free tuition to both French and American selections based on a knowledge of French and English and scholarship attainments.

The girls selected are from eighteen to twenty years old. In France the Government rather than the schools is host to the girls and plans are under way that will enable an increased number to be invited each year.

"I wanted to see the girls settled," Mrs. Frank H. Severance, mother of Miss Severance, who chaperoned the girls from New York and who is returning to the States within a few days, said to a correspondent of the New York Herald. "All are in excellent hands, prepared to enjoy the school life and profit from it. We feel the French government has done a splendid thing in opening the schools to our girls."

The girls will live at the schools and intend to remain a year.

Picturesque Wedding At Soochow

(China Press Correspondence)

Soochow, October 24.—Combining picturesque Chinese wedding customs with the Occidental ceremony, one of the most beautiful weddings ever held in Soochow, was solemnised last night when Miss Margarita Park, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hector Park, and Mr. Dwight Lamar Sherertz, professor in Soochow University, were married in St. John's Church by Bishop Walter R. Lambuth.

Preceding the ceremony, several hundred Chinese guests, including the leading gentry of the city, students of Soochow University and the Laura Haygood Normal School, were entertained by Dr. Park in the Chinese custom. Bright-colored lanterns lighted the spacious grounds of the Hospital Home and the Park residence where a great Chinese feast was served to approximately five hundred guests. During the feast an orchestra of Chinese boys, wearing richly embroidered satin robes, wove in and out among the tables playing popular Chinese music. In a great tent erected to accommodate the gentry, jugglers and sleight of hand performers entertained.

Throughout the day Dr. and Mrs. Park were "at home" to the Chinese of the city who came in great numbers to honor the Parks, who are among the oldest foreign residents in Soochow and who have hundreds of Chinese friends here.

Following the feasting and merrymaking at the Park home the guests joined the throng seeking admittance to the church. Due to expert handling of the crowd by the Boy Scouts and Professors N. Gist Gee and R. Smart, and Francis Vance, ushers, approximately one thousand guests were seated by 7:30 o'clock.

The tinkling of the bells on the ornately embroidered Chinese bridal chairs announced the arrival of the wedding party, for the young couple rode in typical Chinese fashion. The gaiety and picturesqueness of the Chinese wedding festivities was not carried into the church however for a ceremony of dignity and beauty was held.

Shortly before eight o'clock Miss Olive Lipscomb, principal of Davidson Girls' School, sang "At Dawning" in a very pleasing manner, after which the familiar strains of the wedding march were heard. Charles Gee and Professor Woo Chun-foo of St. John's University, Shanghai, lead the processional from the rear of the church, down the aisles to the altar which was beautifully decorated in white flowers and ferns. Four of the prettiest little girls of the Soochow community, Druscilla Gee, Lura Snell, Dorothy Snell, and Elizabeth Smart, dainty in sheer white frocks and Mary Jane yellow hair bows, scattered rose petals in the pathway of the bride. Mrs. D. J. Lewis, niece of Mrs. Park, wearing an exquisite gown of white gorgette crepe and carrying a bouquet of roses, preceded the bride who entered the church on the arm of her father. Miss Park, who is a stately blond, made a beautiful picture. Her loveliness was enhanced by the rich white crepe satin gown with French shoulder train, and the flowing veil which was caught with orange blossoms. The Rev. S. R. Anderson, as best man, accompanied Mr. Sherertz.

The ceremony was performed by Bishop Walter R. Lambuth, brother of Mrs. W. H. Park, assisted by Pastor C. T. Lee, presiding elder of the Soochow district.

Bishop Lambuth, who was born in China in 1854, helped found the Soochow Hospital and launch the work which Dr. Park later carried on. He is in the Orient in the interest of the Southern Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Mrs. W. H. Park, mother of the bride, gowned in an exquisitely embroidered dress of soft grey and lavender chiffon and silk, joined the wedding party as it marched from the church. Following the ceremony Mrs. R. Moore, in a beautiful soprano voice, sang "Until."

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Shell entertained the foreign guests at a reception given in honor of the bride and groom after which the young couple boarded a house boat, presented by Mr. Costa, of the China Mutual Life Insurance Company, for a honeymoon trip to the Great Lake. During the evening Mr. Allen Loehr, American Vice-Consul and Mrs. J. Dyson, sang.

Chinese and foreign friends alike showered Mr. and Mrs. Sherertz with gifts. The gifts included twenty-five handsome red satin and silk wedding scrolls, four large embroidered flower pictures, presented by the highest official in the city, valuable silver pieces, old porcelain, antique scrolls, fragile China, and tea service and wagon given by Bishop Lambuth. Messrs. Kiang and Yang of the Soochow Hospital recorded the gifts. One room in the Park residence was set aside for displaying the gifts and it was filled to overflowing, for more than two hundred Chinese families sent valuable presents.

Miss Park, who is a trained kindergartner, is greatly loved in Soochow. She has won recognition in educational circles by designing a model kindergarten building, the Senah Staley, where she has been teaching. Mr. Sherertz, who has been in China two years, is a graduate of Roanoke College, Virginia. Later he entered Princeton where he received his M.A. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sherertz of Roanoke, Va.
